

Introduction to our Home Manager

Claire Carlyon at Abigail Lodge in Consett

At 18 years old Claire started her care career and became a registered manager of a learning disability home by 21. She significantly improved a care service's CQC rating to GOOD in all areas within four months of her leadership. Claire has a love of learning and holds an NVQ L2, a BTEC National Diploma L3 in Health and Social Care, and an L5 Leadership in Management, along with various other certifications and 20 years of experience.

Outside of work, Claire enjoys spending time with her fiancé, children, and dogs, going on walks, and family holidays. Her personal achievements include buying her first home at 18 and being a proud mother to her two children.

Claire advises those looking for a care home to read reviews, check CQC reports, consult health professionals, and ensure the home meets their needs. She loves making a difference and working with her team.

For those considering a career in care, Claire encourages it for the immense satisfaction it brings to her life.

I love a challenge and I love to make a difference
